Use Dreambox for 15-20 minutes to practice your skills.	Create a fancy word wall for site words that you are working on. You can add to this over time.	Have some playtime with your grown-up. Try to get outside to enjoy the beautiful fall weather when you have your playtime! Did you know that nature time helps you to be happier?
Do your "Math scales!" Practice your Math addition cards. Your goal is to know them all like you know your name!  Use the cards to play a game with a grown-up or friend.	Read a book to (or together with) a member of your family. Write a short retell of what you read. Be sure to include the character, setting, plot, problem, and solution.	Find examples of people working to make a difference in the world and to solve problems. What problems are they addressing? What are they doing? Do they inspire you? Tell about it in your thought book.
The magic number is $12.87 Make a list of all the different ways you can arrive at this amount of money.	Use Raz-kids.com to build your reading skills. Can you find a book about friendship? Consider recording yourself reading to improve your fluency, and be sure to complete the quiz at the end!	Tell your parents about your UNIS Cares project. Can your family agree to do one thing to help the issue you have selected? What will you do?
Edem reads for 20 minutes on Sunday and Monday, 30 minutes on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and 15 minutes on Friday and Saturday. Create a graph to show this information and write at least three questions you could ask your friends if they looked at your graph.	EXPRESS GRATITUDE: Write at least 3 thank you notes to people who make a difference in your world. Consider the doorman, school guards, the school nurse, the crossing guard, the store clerk, bus driver, your mom and dad... Give the notes and see how people respond. How did the notes make them feel? How do you know?	Design an infographic to inform others about something you care about. What facts will you use to persuade them to feel a certain way or to take action?
